WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT ST. JOHN'S

Livestream Access to In-Person Services

As St. John's transitions from primarily Zoom to in person services, we will continue to provide the ability to attend the services via Zoom. The limitations of this approach are that those attending via Zoom will only be able to listen to the service and not be heard by others. We will still enable the Zoom attendees to chat with each other up to 5 minutes before the service and at the end of the service.

You will be able to access the service using video or just audio by telephone. We will try to start the service as close to 10 am as possible so be sure to access the meeting early. The session will be open about 20 minutes before the service starts.

To participate using zoom click the link below or copy it and paste it into your browser address box.

Thank you for coming to worship with us today—on Zoom for live-stream or in the church for the in-person service. We are thankful that we have been able to worship in different ways as one parish family. We thank those who always make this service possible for us.

- Thanks to Bill Pritchard, Regathering Committee Chair, and its members Eileen Tallent and Bryan Harbin for designing the plan, and all those who made it happen so well for us since last fall.
- And of course, Peter Oliver has enabled our sound and live-stream so that everyone had the opportunity to be with us. Vestry will review today's service so that we can learn from it and continue to plan for future ones.
- We are continuing our safety measures which are printed on the back of this bulletin. Thank you for your support!

Our doors are open today at 10 am! We ask that you come with a mask and remain masked during the service. You can expect that there will be singing (in masks), that those who wish may sit socially distanced in the transept, restrooms will be open, and communion from the reserved sacrament will be available as you leave. Please watch for the Weekly Update and updated provisions! We respect each person's decision to attend and the comfort level of her/his participation.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Job 23:1-9, 16-17

Job said:

"Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.

Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!

I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.

I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.

Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; but he would give heed to me.

There an upright person could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.

"If I go forward, he is not there;
or backward, I cannot perceive him;

on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.

God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;

If only I could vanish in darkness,
and thick darkness would cover my face!"

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 90:12-17 (Book of Common Prayer, p. 718)

(Read responsively by whole verse.)

12 So teach us to number our days * that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD; how long will you tarry? *
be gracious to your servants.

14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us * and the years in which we suffered adversity.

16 Show your servants your works * and your splendor to their children.

17 May the graciousness of the LORD our God be upon us; *
prosper the work of our hands;
prosper our handiwork.

Second Lesson: Hebrews 4:12-16

Reader A Reading from Hebrews.

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

People Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL HYMN: "Be thou my vision"

Hymnal #488

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 10:17-31

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Narrator: As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him,

Man: "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus: "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.'"

Man: "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth."

Narrator: Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said,

Jesus: "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

Narrator: When the man heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples,

Jesus: “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!”

Narrator: And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again,

Jesus: “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

Narrator: They were greatly astounded and said to one another,

Man: “Then who can be saved?”

Jesus: “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Narrator: Peter began to say to him,

Peter: “Look, we have left everything and followed you.”

Jesus: “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON The Rev. Dr. Laurence K. “Larry” Packard

THE NICENE CREED

The Celebrant and People say together

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM III

The Leader and People pray responsively

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The Intercessor and People offer their prayers.

The Celebrant and People add this concluding collect:

A PRAYER FOR ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The Celebrant and People say

Gracious God,
Send your Spirit upon us
during this interim period, and bless our ministries
for the building up of our parish and the mission of your Church.
Grant us all things necessary for our common life,
And bless our calling of a new priest,
That we might receive a faithful pastor,
Who will equip us for our ministries.
Help us to reach out our hands in love of others, Even as your Son Jesus reached out his arms on the cross.
In his name, we pray.
Amen.

THE CONFESSION OF SIN (seated)

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the people remain in place to greet one another in the name of the Lord.
